

Belgrade Dance Festival

Ambassador Julia Feeney, took part in the press conference to announce the forthcoming 11th Belgrade Dance Festival, along with other ambassadors, representatives of the Ministry of Culture, Belgrade's Department for culture and Festival 's organiser Aja Jung.

Ambassador Feeney announced the participation of world famous Australian Dance Group- Shaun Parker's Dance company - the first time an Australian company has participated at this Festival. "The embassy is very pleased to have helped bring this modern and vibrant group of dancers who will tell their story of happiness to Belgrade".

Award winning Shaun Parker's company will perform on 7th April at Pozoriste na Terazijama with its play- Happy as Larry.

The Shaun Parker's company will also facilitate a workshop for young dancers on Sunday, 6th April

