

Citizen Hour in Podgorica

On 26 September, H.E. Dr. Helena Studdert, non-resident Australian Ambassador to Montenegro, addressed the Info Centre on Euro Atlantic Integrations Citizen Hour in Podgorica on the Australia-NATO relationship.

Titled “Shoulder to shoulder: Australia – NATO partnership”. Dr Studdert’s address highlighted Australia’s position in the Asia-Pacific region, its involvement in peace-keeping missions internationally and its relationship with NATO. “Today, the Australian relationship with NATO is characterised by a high level of cooperation. The Individual Partnership and Cooperation Programme signed between Australia and NATO this year sets out a commitment to continue to expand our relationship”, Ambassador Studdert said.

The event was attended by students and members of the media.
