

Ethno Fashion Show

Ambassador Feeney organised an Ethno Fashion Show; "Tradition with a mission" on 15 April in her Residence to promote women entrepreneurship and the significance of appreciating and maintaining national traditions.

The project was done in partnership with NALED and Ethno network.

Empowering women to participate in the economy provides prosperity to whole of society. In addition, entrepreneurship and private sector development are fundamental to economic growth, because where women can create jobs; they can earn money and thus support their families.

The aim of the event was to promote and appreciate the skills of the Serbian ladies and their traditional items, to get them to know diplomatic community and spread the network of their potential clients.
