

Promoting education

Australia's Ambassador H.E. Dr Helena Studdert visited Novi Sad University on Wednesday 16 October 2013. Dr Studdert met with members of the Faculty of Philosophy - prof. dr. Nebojsa Majstorovic, prof.dr. Vladislava Gordic and prof. Natasa Kapmark - to discuss ways to enhance student and university links between Serbia and Australia. Ambassador Studdert also gave a presentation to members of the student body, highlighting Australia's economic credentials, reputation for creativity and innovation and its high quality education system. The presentation was designed to encourage students to consider Australia as a possible study destination in the future.
